

Your Friday Water Report

This Week's Topic:

Get Something for Nothing

Yes. Free stuff that might lower your water bill. The Utility wants you to use less water. So, they are giving away fittings and fixtures that can reduce use. The free low-flow kit includes adjustable pulsating showerheads, fixed or movable. The kit also contains kitchen and bathroom sink aerators. The free home audit kit is useful if you suspect you might have leaks. The Utility is also offering a free on-site water audit to help check for possible leaks. If your water bill appears to be unusually high, the Utility can draw a 90-day history of your use from the updated meters to tell you how much you used each quarter hour. For details, call 426-3319, or visit the Utility at 905 12th St. in Las Vegas
